

O5R white

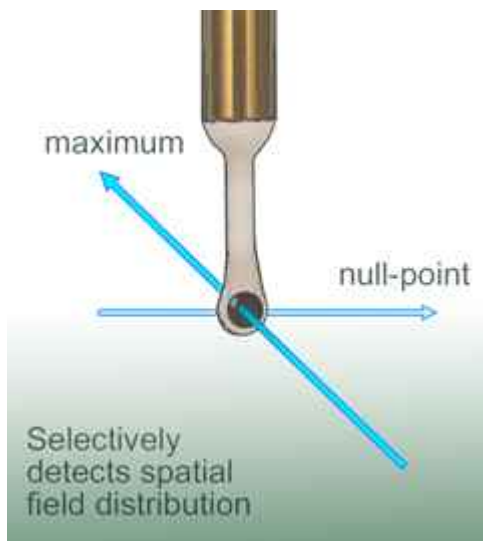

Probe Head for MSA 02

Short description

The O5R probe head is designed for measuring the burst magnetic field on an assembly's surface. It is especially useful for the measurement of intensity and local orientation of burst magnetic fields near ICs. The probe head is white. Black dots mark the coil opening.

Measuring principles

05R white

Probe Head for MSA 02

Application 05R

